

Touch For Health® Kinesiology

Level 1 with Randall Gibson, M.Ed., LMT, RPP, CST

Imagine taking manual resistive muscle testing to a whole new level where you could locate and resolve stress and imbalance anywhere in the body.

Now imagine being able to give your client, patient or loved one a simple tune-up that addresses the major acupuncture meridians and related organs, emotional issues, posture, muscle tone, nutrition and nervous system functioning. You could teach basic self-help methods to relieve pain, a technique to release emotional stress, or an exercise to improve neurological integration, coordination and balance.

You've just imagined Touch For Health® Kinesiology.
